OpSource Closes $15 Million Series D Funding Round Led by Crosslink Capital

Investment to Speed Worldwide Introduction of OpSource On-Demand 2.0, the Leading Web Application Delivery Platform

SANTA CLARA, Calif. – June 12, 2007 – OpSource™, the Software as a Service (SaaS) delivery experts, announced today that it has closed a $15 million Series D financing round. OpSource will utilize these funds for ongoing business development and to accelerate the worldwide adoption of OpSource On-Demand™, the leading web application delivery platform in the US. OpSource On-Demand enables companies to quickly and securely offer applications on-demand.

The financing was led by Crosslink Capital including participation from Artiman Ventures. This latest financing brings total funds raised by OpSource to $47 million. OpSource also announced that Crosslink's Gary Hromadko has joined the board of directors.

"Crosslink invested in OpSource because it has established a highly differentiated position as the leading provider of infrastructure and application services for Web-based solutions. OpSource has an exceptional management team, both strategically insightful and operationally strong. We expect great things from the company." said Gary Hromadko, Crosslink Capital venture partner.

Treb Ryan, OpSource CEO, said, "With this additional funding, OpSource is now in a position to meet increasing demand in Europe for delivering on-demand applications. We can also speed the time to market for new services and on-demand applications that will grow the SaaS ecosystem. These activities continue OpSource’s legacy as a catalyst for spectacular innovation in the on-demand market.”

Saurabh Srivastava, general partner, Artiman Ventures, noted, “OpSource eats, sleeps and breathes the on-demand world, partnering with its customers, sharing their focus and incentive to deliver cost effective, high quality, on-demand products and services. As a testament to OpSource’s success, some of the fastest growing and most successful Web 2.0 companies, including, BMC, Business Objects, Coghead, Etology, General Mills, KANA and Ribbit have chosen OpSource as their Web application delivery partner.”

OpSource On-Demand

OpSource On-Demand is a comprehensive, award-winning Web application delivery platform that enables companies to quickly and securely offer applications on-demand. OpSource On-Demand offers three important components: 1) a complete operational hardware, software and networking infrastructure, including application management and 24x7 customer-branded end-user support; 2) tools that accelerate revenue generation, such as billing and analytics; and 3) a unique, Success-Based Delivery Model which includes unit-based pricing. This ensures that businesses begin with a modest minimum commitment, and that ongoing increases in revenue will always precede future increases in service delivery cost. Companies can order OpSource On-Demand via an innovative online ordering system that guarantees a best-practices infrastructure will be available within 72 hours.
